- ARANB Message to All New Brunswick

Posted: January 24, 2021

The Anglophone Rights Association of New Brunswick does NOT oppose bilingualism as is being stated by some publicly. Those who are perpetuating the notion that ARANB is opposed to bilingualism are intentionally attempting to avoid meaningful discussion that would lead to fair and equitable resolution to the issues. There are issues with respect to the [\[...more\]](#)

- The \(92% and 5%\) Counties of NB

Posted: August 24, 2020

Bilingualism does not work for everybody. One of the cornerstones of bilingualism is that the two languages French and English are equal without regard for the regional realities of New Brunswick, without acknowledgement of the practical aspects of acquiring and maintaining language. One regional reality is that there are 15 counties in New Brunswick. Eight [\[...more\]](#)

- \$2.7 Billion – Plan For Official Languages 2018-2023

Posted: March 16, 2020

The following is a multi billion dollar program by the federal government designated for two particular groups, Anglophones in Quebec and Francophones outside Quebec. In 2003, the Government of Canada introduced the first Action Plan for Official Languages, which laid the foundation for investing in education and government services. These investments were maintained in the [\[...more\]](#)

Posted: February 27, 2020

This letter is regarding the television advertisements by our new Official Languages Commissioner, Shirley MacLean. While watching our local news the other day we were saddened to hear of the closure of six rural emergency rooms. Then, during the commercial break after hearing that bad news, we were subjected to the Official Languages Commissioner's propaganda [\[...more\]](#)

- Toward a Better Bilingualism.

Posted: November 8, 2019

There is a conflict going on between the Anglophone and Francophone community primarily over language. That's nothing new. Let's concentrate then, on the science of learning language. The following are excerpts of a position paper entitled "Why Anglophones in New Brunswick will remain unilingual" by a Francophone who lives in New Brunswick and has extensive [\[...more\]](#)
