

News

Description

- «
- 1
- ...
- 14
- 15
- 16
- 17
- 18
- ...
- 24
- »

- Public Information Session – Salisbury, NB

Posted: September 17, 2015

With Special Guests who will lead an Informative discussion on what the Anglophone community is currently facing in NB. [\[...more\]](#)

- Public Information Session – Saint John, NB

Posted: September 12, 2015

Special Guest: Millie Forrest, Canadian Taxpayers Federation [\[...more\]](#)

- Miramichi Meeting Update

Posted: September 8, 2015

Just got back from Miramichi, and my head is still spinning from a very busy, informative, and productive day - but I will try to give you all a quick summary. Janice will also be preparing the minutes from our meeting, and we will have some updates for you in that area within the next [\[...more\]](#)

- Anglophone rights group wants proportionate funding

Posted: September 8, 2015

A new advocacy group for the English language in New Brunswick held its first meeting in Sussex Thursday night.

- Francophone teachers association sues government

Posted: July 1, 2015

The Association of Francophone Teachers of New Brunswick, which represents 3,000 public school teachers, is taking the provincial government to court over what it sees as grossly insufficient funding for French schools. "We're not asking for icing on the cake, we're asking for the full meal deal. We're asking for equality," said Lucie Martin, vice [\[...more\]](#)

- "Why isn't my French good enough for jobs"

Posted: April 28, 2015

The Editor, In response to an April 11th letter to the editor entitled "Why isn't my French good enough for jobs" by author Katelyn Myra. It is extremely encouraging to witness a young citizen standing up for her rights. For several decades our governments, both Federal and Provincial have been promoting French immersion for English [\[...more\]](#)

- Segregation in New Brunswick

Posted: March 27, 2015

To the Editor..... In December 1955 in Montgomery Alabama, Rosa Parks a middle aged African American woman defied segregationist policies and refused to go to the back of the bus and give up her seat to a white passenger. Her defiance was the start of a cataclysmic change of events that has forever changed race [\[...more\]](#)

- Notwithstanding Clause

Posted: March 3, 2015

Due to an ever increasing number of New Brunswickers futures being affected by legislated bilingualism it has once again become a serious topic of discussion. Since many have learned that it is useless to rely on their elected representatives for information or action, they have turned to Facebook and other electronic media to express their [\[...more\]](#)

- Thank-you Mayor Woodside!

Posted: March 3, 2015

Thank you, Mayor Brad Woodside for having the backbone to ask the question that our elected representatives continually hide from. Whenever they dare to raise the subject they are severely reprimanded. When was FREE SPEECH removed from our Charter of Rights and Freedoms? In a democracy our MLAs should have the right to introduce and [\[...more\]](#)

- **“Village Historique Acadien” gets \$300,000.00 Increase In Funding**

Posted: December 4, 2014

While English historic sites are all but ignored the french get more and more of our hard earned money to promote their causes... [\[...more\]](#)

- **Quebecer Complains About “Lack of French Signage in New Brunswick”**

Posted: December 4, 2014

In response to an October 2nd letter to the editor published in the Daily Gleaner and the Telegraph Journal entitled "No Respect for Paying Customers" penned by Paul Arsenault of Quebec... [\[...more\]](#)

- **L’Acadie Nouvelle reports “ACADIANS IN POWER”**

Posted: December 1, 2014

Alarminglly the governing Liberals now have 16 francophone MLAs and 10 Anglophone... [\[...more\]](#)

- «
- 1
- ...
- 14
- 15
- 16
- 17
- 18
- ...
- 24
- »

Date Created
2015-09-08