News

Description

- ### Languages commissioner steps up call for bilingual top bureaucrats – New Brunswick – CBC News

  Posted: June 22, 2017

  New Brunswick's official languages commissioner is renewing her call to make bilingualism a requirement for all senior civil servants in the provincial government. Source: Languages commissioner steps up call for bilingual top bureaucrats - New Brunswick - CBC News

- ### Francophone lobby group sues province over Vitalité Health's independence – New Brunswick – CBC News

  Posted: June 14, 2017

  The francophone lobby group Égalité Santé en français is suing the province to force it to give the Vitalité Health Network more independence from the government. Source: Francophone lobby group sues province over Vitalité Health's independence - New Brunswick - CBC News

- ### Bilingual judge, jury requested for murder trial (by paid subscription)

  Posted: June 6, 2017

  https://www.telegraphjournal.com/telegraph-journal/story/100222823/tilley-murder-wayne-rattray-trial

- Fallacy of French Under-Representation

  Posted: May 31, 2017

  End the unfairness of official bilingualism. Stop wasting our tax dollars. Source: Fallacy of French Under-Representation

- Quebec plans to reopen constitutional debate, launch coast-to-coast discussion – Montreal – CBC News

  Posted: May 31, 2017

  Canada's Constitution has become a taboo topic among members of the political class in recent years — but it appears that's about to change. Source: Quebec plans to reopen constitutional debate, launch coast-to-coast discussion - Montreal - CBC News

- Francophone immigrants face greater challenges outside Quebec | Toronto Star

  Posted: May 30, 2017

  Source: Francophone immigrants face greater challenges outside Quebec | Toronto Star

- Special Saint-Jean-Baptiste events celebrate Canada's 150th anniversary – Montreal | Globalnews.ca

  Posted: May 26, 2017

  Source: Special Saint-Jean-Baptiste events celebrate Canada's 150th anniversary - Montreal | Globalnews.ca

- Pilot projects will boost French language instruction in some schools

  Posted: May 12, 2017

  Some students in kindergarten to Grade 3 at four rural anglophone schools will get at least 15 minutes more of French every day under pilot projects being launched by the New Brunswick government this fall. The French language pilots, announced last month, are aimed at improving access to French learning at schools where there is [...more]

-

These students who "escape" from the francophone schools of the South (Translated using Google Translate)

Posted: May 12, 2017

https://www.acadienouvelle.com/actualites/2017/05/12/eleves-echappent-aux-ecoles-francophones-sud/

- ### Still difficult to work in French in the federal public service PUBLISHED ON MAY 10, 2017

  Posted: May 10, 2017

  OTTAWA - The number of Francophones working in the federal public service remained stable in 2016, but their ability to work in the official language of their choice remains a challenge, according to a report by the Clerk on the Public Service of Canada. BENJAMIN VACHET bvachet@tfo.org | @BVachet "Many employees, especially Francophones, feel they can not […more]

- ### Education Summit: A Giant Step Forward (Translated using Google Translate)

  Posted: May 6, 2017

  Walls carpeted with children's drawings, naive shapes with bright colors. Sitting on a tiny chair disguised as a loveseat, it is easily taken for a giant. But now a toddler comes to talk to me. (Let's call him Jacques, since I have no right to appoint a child without parental permission). I sit almost at ground level. It's […more]

- ### Anglophone West desperately seeking French immersion teachers Not enough teachers, and no backup plan in place

  Posted: May 4, 2017

  Anglophone School District West doesn't yet have all the French immersion teachers it needs for next year — or a plan for what to do if it can't find enough. "We haven't planned that one out," superintendent David McTimoney said Thursday on Information Morning Fredericton. 6 more schools to offer early French immersion this fall Plenty of […more]

- 8
- …
- 24
- »

📄 PDF

Date Created
2015-09-08

Footer Tagline